The shipment of personal effects in the vehicle is done solely for the convenience of the shipper. We are not responsible for the transport or damage of personal items nor are we responsible for the damage to the vehicle that may occur because of said personal items. Please check with your own private insurance to determine whether coverage exists. Ensure that your belongings are boxed, sealed, and secured in the backseat and trunk area only while maintaining full visibility out of all the windows. Please do not place any items in the front seat or directly behind the driver's seat as the driver's seat must remain locked in the rear most position. If packing a truck bed with items, please ensure that nothing exceeds the top of the bed regardless of if you have a canopy or camper shell. Maximum of 250lbs on routes from Anchorage and Washington only. Excess of 250lbs can incur additional fees.

THE FOLLOWING PERSONAL EFFECTS ARE CONTAINED IN THE REFERENCED VEHICLE.

GENERIC DESCRIPTION

I certify there are no hazardous materials (e.g. explosives, flammables, poisons, compressed gases, oxidants, corrosives, etc.), firearms, ammunition, items of unusual value (e.g. cash, money, bonds, precious metals, stones, and gems), alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, drugs or medicines (either prescribed or illegal), antlers, furs, or pornographic material.
